Re: Jody Huisentruit Investigation

June 27, 2016, will mark 21 years since Jodi Huisentruit's disappearance. Law enforcement personnel from a variety of agencies continue to work on leads in this case as part of their regular case load. This past year has included additional interviews and follow-up work.

At this point, we have not learned of information that will help us to move forward in making an arrest and subsequent criminal prosecution. We are continuing to investigate and visit with potential witnesses and persons of interest. We would ask anyone with information about this case to contact the Mason City Police Department or the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation.

This case also gives us a chance to focus on victims and their families, who are sometimes overshadowed by the story of the investigation or the defendant. We would ask that you be mindful of Jodi and similar victims who don't have a voice. Please consider sharing information you may have that could be useful to law enforcement in this case.
